InterWrap announces at the IRE show in New Orleans a new Lifetime Limited Warranty to back its leading brand of Titanium® roofing underlayment products.

This new enhanced warranty supersedes all other previously offered warranties and is effective immediately. Titanium is a highly engineered coated woven synthetic roofing underlayment designed for use under all types of primary roofing materials in sloped roof applications. Titanium products come in a full range of product offerings to meet the unique requirements of your roofing application.
